Day 2: Freycinet National Park

We stop at Sidling Lookout and Legerwood's WWI memorial tree carvings, the old mining town of Derby and then drive through the lush Myrtle Rainforest at Weldborough Pass. En route to our destination of Copping we'll travel through Swansea, Orford and Sorrell. Then chart a course for Port Arthur along an impressive cliff-lined coast. We'll cross the 100 year old Denison Canal and the historic once-guarded check-point of Eaglehawk Neck to infamous Port Arthur. Once there, we'll cruise round the Isle of the Dead, then take a fascinating guided walk of the Historic Site and prison. We'll head back over the Tasman

Peninsula to Hobart. Along the way we'll feast our eyes on the amazing vistas of Tasman's Arch, the Devil's Kitchen and the Blowhole then travel the Sorrell Causeway and cross Pittwater into Hobart.
